The Board of Education.

We are informed by a member of the Board of Education (city) that the terms of office of Dr. D. C. O'Keefe, Dr. S. H. Stout, W. A. Hemphill, and M. C. Blanchard, expired last night, they having been elected for two years. The Board was composed of twelve members. Four were elected for two years, four for four years, and four for six years. The election last night of W. A. Hemphill, M. C. Blanchard, W. L. Scruggs, and R. J. Lowry was for six years. The last two were not elected to fill vacancies, as none existed. This makes the Board complete. Four go out now in two years, and four in four years.

Editors Constitution: It see it reported in an issue of the Columbus Sun and LaGrange Reporter that I have introduced a bill in the House of Representatives to create a new county out of the counties of Meriwether, Forsyth and others. What I wish to state is that I have introduced no such bill, neither do I intend to, for if I would I would be going against the wishes of four-fifths of the people of my county. I wish to do nothing that would be detrimental to the interest of my constituents; and allow me here to say that I am conscientiously and constitutionally opposed to creating new counties. The report is false, and was entended to offend my constituents.

Respectfully,
J. W. MORELAND.

THE STATE ROAD FRAUDS.

The Committee of Citizens make the following Report to the Legislature about the Books.

Blodgett Booming.

Nearly Two Millions Squandered in one Year.

A Stupendous Monument of Radical Fraud.

A Radical Record of Missing Vouchers, Wholesale Waste, Tremendous Stealing, Sudden Riches, and Plunder of Public Money.

ATLANTA, GA., Nov. 25, 1871.

To the House of Representatives now in session:

In compliance with a correspondence which we herewith enclose, marked exhibit A. We took formal possession of the books and papers of the Western and Atlantic Railroad on the 28th day of August, 1871, and have been engaged since that time in bringing up said books for the purposes of showing the balances.

In view of the short time we have been engaged, and the vast amount of labor necessary to be bestowed, we have to regret that we are able only to make a report to the close of the fiscal year ending September 30, 1870, as you will find from statement annexed, made up by the General Book-keeper in charge, which we respectfully submit with his report, marked Exhibit B, in accordance with a resolution of your honorable body passed November 24, 1871.

In addition to the work done on the books we have carefully recorded all the vouchers taken during Mr. Blodgett's administration of the road, beginning January 1st, and ending December 27th, 1870, (the day the lessees took charge.)

Except vouchers No. 6, dated February 15th, 1870, from Josephine Beck, for $4,000 00.

Voucher No. 20, dated March 27, 1870, from James Sprouls, for $1,500 00

Voucher No. 71, dated March, 1870, from William White & Co., for $3,000 00

Voucher No. 60, dated July 30, 1870, from Jared I. Whitaker, for $5,587 50.

These four vouchers were never turned over to our committee, and, as yet, we have been unable to trace them.

We have thought proper to copy these vouchers, which has taken no small amount of labor, in order to facilitate such investigations as might be determined by the Legislature, into the late management of the Western and Atlantic Railroad, and for the further purpose of more effectually securing the records of said administration.

The vouchers are copied into blank books and properly indexed so that they become ready and valuable references, in the hands of an investigating committee.

Referring to the books and papers of the Western and Atlantic Railroad it were perhaps proper to say that they show a liberality in general expenditures, by the administration in question, of gigantic proportions, the heaviest of which took place from October 1st to December 27th, 1870.

As partial evidence of this peculiar liberality in disbursing the people's money by Mr. Blodgett's administration, we give the following comparative statement of receipts and disbursements under the management of the road by Major Campbell Wallace, Colonel E. Hulbert and Captain Foster Blodgett.

STATEMENT.

Gross earnings under supervision of Major Campbell Wallace from January 1, 1867, to December 31, 1867	$1,162,450 63
Expenses from January 1, 1867, to December 31, 1867	832,248 15
Net earnings	$330,2?2 48
Gross earnings under supervision of Col. Hulbert, from January 1, 1869, to December 31, 1869	$1,288,620 02
Expenses from January 1, 1869, to December 30, 1869	911,752 77
Net earnings	$376,867 25
Expenses under supervision of Mr. Blodgett, from January 1, 1870, to December 27, 1870	$1,566,784 26
Amount of expenses not charged on books approximating	28,000 00
Total expenses	$1,594,784 26
Gross earnings from January 1, 1870, to December 27, 1870	$1,410,455 08
Expenses over earnings	$184,329 18
Advanced by Henry Clews & Co., December 27, 1870	$27,000 00
Advanced by Boorman, Johnson & Co., November 30, 1870	28,563 33
Advanced by Boorman, Johnson & Co., October 30, 1870	47,000 00
	$102,563 33

Amount expended by Blodgett over and above that by Campbell Wallace $762,436 11. Add to the $762,436 11 expended by Mr. Blodgett over and above the expenditures made by Major Campbell Wallace for the year 1867, the $109,131 82 turned over to Mr. Blodgett by Col. E. Hulbert in cash, and cash assets and about three quarters of a million of debts contracted by said administration, paid in part by railroad commission with the balance yet unpaid, and you have the grand total of about eighteen hundred thousand dollars as the proximate sum which has been recklessly and unwarrantably expended or complicitly and illegitimately appropriated. Considering the fact that only the small sum of forty-five thousand dollars was paid into the treasury by Mr. Blodgett during his administration of the road, and that $109,131 82 were turned over to him from Col. E. Hulbert's administration the increased business of the road for 1870, the careless and irregular manner in which a large number of the vouchers have been taken, which can be readily pointed out to your committee, and the sudden affluence of so many who have been connected with the late administration of the Western and Atlantic Railroad it shows a reckless misappropriation of the hard earnings of the people, which amounts to prima facie evidence of fraud and demands, in the judgment of this committee, the most thorough investigation. We respectfully suggest that it shall be the pleasure of the committee in charge to turn over all the books and papers of the Western and Atlantic Railroad to the Legislative committee when appointed and to give all the information in our power relating to the books, or that may be of value in the investigation.

Respectfully Submitted,
C. L. REDWINE,
C. C. HAMMOCK,
E. E. RAWSON,
Committee in charge.

[EXHIBIT B.]

ATLANTA, Nov. 22, 1871.

Messrs. C. L. Redwine, C. C. Hammock, E. E. Rawson, Committee in charge of the books and papers of the Western and Atlantic Railroad:

GENTLEMEN—I have the pleasure to hand you herewith statements of the Earnings and Expenses, also a Financial Statement of the Western and Atlantic Railroad at the close of the Fiscal Year, ending September 30th, 1871.

Having been appointed General Bookkeeper in charge, September 1st, 1871, with competent assistants, the duties involved in making up these reports have been onerous. Upon an examination of the books, I found they had not been balanced since January 31st, 1870, (which is the date of the last balance made by myself.) Several attempts had been made, showing forced balances, which necessitated a thorough investigation by checking over the books of the road from February 1st, 1870, to September 30, 1870. In doing this, numerous errors were found, which will affect some of the accounts.

I find that no settlements have been made during a period of eight months after the road was leased, with the Atlanta, Kingston, Dalton and Chattanooga agencies. The different agents, since my appointment, requested a settlement, but I have informed them, that owing to the condition of the books of the road, nothing could be done with their accounts until the books were thoroughly examined up to the time of the lease, at which time their accounts would be in a condition for adjustment.

The labor of adjusting and completing the business of the road from September 30th, 1870, up to, and beyond the lease of the road, will be very arduous. The accounts with agents and connecting roads will require a thorough investigation, and will consume several months to perfect settlements, etc.

Thanking the gentlemen who have assisted me in these labors, and your committee,

I am, very respectfully,
your obedient servent,
B. F. MOORE,
General Book Keeper in Charge.

GEORGIA LEGISLATURE.

SATURDAY, November 25, 1871.

SENATE.

The Senate met at 10 A. M., Mr. Vice President pro tem. Hinton in the chair.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Warren.

The roll was called and the journal read and approved.

A House resolution instructing the Joint Committee on Finance to examine certain bonds issued December 11th, 1858, to inquire for what purpose they were issued, and report in regard to a recommendation of the State Board of Education that the interest of the same shall be applied to educational purposes, was tabled.

Bills were read the second time.

A message was received from the Governor, stating the approval of an act to remove the county site of Clarke county from Watkinsville to Athens.

Mr. Bruton offered a resolution providing for a joint committee to take into consideration the advantage of granting further aid to the Atlantic and Gulf Railroad, in which the State owns 10,000 shares, for the purpose of extending the same from Bainbridge to Mobile, thereby making it a part of the Pacific route, which was not acted on.

A bill to alter and explaining section 244 of the Code, relating to attorneys at law and permitting the Clerk of the City Court of Savannah to practice in other courts, was passed.

On motion, the Senate then adjourned.

HOUSE.

House met at 9 o'clock A. M., Speaker Smith presiding.

Prayer by Rev Mr. Cox.

The Journal was read and approved.

Mr. Bacon moved to reconsider so much of yesterday's proceedings as relate to the action of this House in relation to per diem. He said that he made this motion to reconsider in order to insert three dollars instead of six.

Mr McMillan said that it would cost the State as much as a reduction of one dollar per day of per diem would amount to to discuss this matter one hour, but that if he thought Mr. Bacon was in earnest he would support the motion to reconsider for the purpose named.

Mr. Bacon said that he was in earnest, and was decidedly in favor of fixing the per diem at three dollars, which amount would pay the reasonable expenses of members of the General Assembly.

Mr. Phillips was in favor of retrenchment, but urged that a reasonable compensation should be allowed to members. He was in favor of the reconsideration in order that the bill may be completed so as embrace all parties receiving pay.

Mr. Woodward called the previous question.

The call was sustained.

The yeas and nays were called for on the motion to reconsider. Yeas 71, nays 52.

Mr. Scott moved to suspend the rules to take up the bill just reconsidered.

On the motion to suspend the rules the yeas and nays were called to find out if there was a quorum present. One hundred and eleven members were present and answered to their names.

The rules were suspended.

Mr. Jackson moved to insert three dollars per day for members and five dollars per day for officers.

Mr. Howell moved to insert eight dollars per day for officers and five dollars for members.

Mr. Simmons, of Gwinnett, moved that the House go in committee of the whole and perfect the bill. This motion prevailed.

Mr. Goodman moved to report back the bill recommended by the committee.

Mr. Hudson said he voted yesterday for six dollars per day, and is in favor of that still. Mr. Jackson lives in Atlanta, enjoys the home circle and has no additional expenses, so that he may be able to afford to represent his county for three dollars, for every hour wasted in debate costs over $300; and some of those who want such low per diem waste more than the difference in discussing this and other measures.

Mr. Phillips moved to fix pay of officers at $10 per day, and of members at $7.

Mr. Jackson favored reduction to the actual expenses of members. He said that the whole people demand it.

Mr. McMillan favored the plan fixing the pay of officers at $7 and members at $6.

Mr. Crittenden said that the Finance Committee carefully investigated this matter and made a report, which he moved to adopt.

The motion to strike out six and insert seven, as per diem of members, prevailed.

The motion to strike out $3 for every twenty miles and insert $5 prevailed.

The committee rose and reported back the bill as amended.

Mr. Hoge moved to adopt the report of the committee. The bill as amended fixes the pay of officers at ten dollars, members at seven dollars, and five dollars for every twenty miles traveled.

Mr. Jackson moved again to strike out $10 and insert $5; strike out $7 and insert $3; strike out $5 in mileage and insert $3.

Mr. Simmons, of Gwinnett moved to strike $10 and insert $8; strike out $7 and insert $5.

Mr. Hudson called the previous question. Sustained.

The motion to adopt Mr. Simmons' amendment was lost.

Mr. Jackson's motion was also lost.

On the motion to pass the bill reported by the Finance Committee, the yeas and nays were called. Yeas 110; nays 11. The bill as passed, fixes the pay of officers at $10; of members at $7, and $5 for every twenty miles traveled.

On motion, the rules were suspended and the following bills were read 1st time.

VAN BUSKIRK'S FRAGRANT SOZODONT

For Cleansing and Preserving the TEETH
HARDENING THE GUMS

Imparting a delightfully refreshing taste and feeling to the mouth, removing all tartar and scurf from the teeth, completely arresting the progress of decay, and whitening such cavities in the teeth as have already become black by decay.

IMPURE BREATH.

AMONG all the disagreeable consequences that follow fast the decay of the teeth, an impure breath must be the most unpleasant and mortifying to its possessor, as it is the most inexcusable and offensive in society. How often its possessor experiences a distant coldness shown even from the best of friends, or perhaps the one most fondly cherished, from this source. You are ignorant of the cause yourself, the subject is so delicate—your most intimate friend will not mention it. Why not remove this one great barrier to your health, beauty and happiness, at once, by using that justly popular dentifrice, fragrant Sozodont, the most convenient, pleasant and efficacious gem for the toilet the world has ever produced.

Sold by druggists everywhere at 75 cents per bottle. oct26-3m

☞ The Alabama Claims Commission will assemble in Geneva on the 12th of December, according to information had from Versailles. It is said that its sittings will continue during the winter, and about five hundred cases be presented for arbitration.

To Correspondents and Contributors.

We trust that our correspondents and contributors will have patience with us. Many valuable articles and letters are on hand which we will bring out as soon as possible. The legislative pressure on our columns is very heavy.

New York.

The New York World is not discouraged. It says: The Democracy was once beaten in that State worse than this year. In the Legislature of 1838 the Whigs had one hundred out of the one hundred and twenty-eight members, leaving to the Democrats only 28 representatives in that body. It rose after that defeat and became a great power in the land. It will do it again.

Spalding County Free Schools.

Those who propose the entire repeal of the free school law are ignorant of the progress already made in this matter.

Take Spalding county for instance. The Griffin Middle Georgian gives the report of Commissioner Morrow. It shows a list of 3,322 school children in the county. Of 1,738 white children, 821 were enroled in the schools. Of 1,582 blacks, 430 enroled.

Georgia's Census.

A special telegram to the Savannah News from Washington states that it is officially announced by the Census Bureau that the population of Georgia consists of six hundred and thirty-eight thousand nine hundred and twenty-six whites; five hundred and forty-five thousand one hundred and forty-two colored; forty Indians, and one Chinese—total, one million one hundred and eighty-four thousand one hundred and nine, which gives to her nine electoral votes, two Senators and seven members of Congress.

☞ The total indebtedness of Tennessee on the 1st of October last, was $41,988,089 16. The population of Tennessee being by the last census 1,258,520, this gives a per capita debt of thirty-three dollars for every man, woman and child in the State, or some two hundred dollars to every voter. Considering, says the New York World, that the State debt of New York is but some forty-four dollars per voter, and that of Pennsylvania about fifty-three dollars, the nature of the legacy left the people of Tennessee by the Brownlow regime is quite apparent.

☞ The Governors of the New England and the Northwestern States will meet in convention at Detroit, on Wednesday, the 29th day of November, for the purpose of inducing Congress to take measures for the construction of a continuous water and steam navigation route of maximum capacity from the Mississippi Valley around the Falls of Niagara to the American side, thence by the way of Lake Ontario, the river St. Lawrence, Lake Champlaine and the Hudson river, by the nearest, cheapest and best route to the Atlantic ocean; and that Congress shall have exclusive control of all the works along the proposed route, so as forever to regulate the rates of toll and transportation thereon.

The Democratic Convention.

We urge most earnestly that steps be taken in all the counties to send a delegation to the Democratic Convention on the 6th. Especially should this be done from counties with Radical Representatives.

The call issued for Fulton county meets our approval, and we trust to see a full meeting on Monday night at the City Hall.

There are important matters enough to be decided to keep the Legislature in session till the time of the Convention. These investigation matters, the Appropriation Act, etc., etc., will require attention, and should be legislated upon before adjournment. Then the Legislature can adjourn until after the election, when it should meet to inaugurate the Governor and finish its work.

The Public Printing.

The Sun asks us some questions. We answer cheerfully:

It asks if we would take five and ten dollar jobs of printing at 25, 20 and 15 per cent. profit. Also if we would take a fifty or hundred thousand dollar job at five per cent. If not, at what per cent. would we take it?

Small jobs at 15 and 20 per cent. we do not take knowingly, and seldom take at 25 per cent. Experience proves that less than 25 per cent. on small work does not pay, while the average per cent. is considerably higher.

A fifty or hundred thousand dollar job we would not think of taking at five per cent., though we would take it at less than a eleven or twelve thousand dollars job, which the State printing about amounts to. The necessity for a large increase of material, presses and labor to do large jobs, and to be left on hand half worn out, is something to be considered.

We know one thing very certainly, that we try to do good, faithful work; and we don't work for nothing. Men that offer to work for nothing, mean to make their profit by cheap work, or over-charging the cost of material. A man that tries to cut too low in getting work done, over-reaches himself.

If a hundred thousand dollar job should be brought to us to bid upon, which is entirely impossible, we should make a careful calculation, based upon the kind of work, the time for delivery, the terms of payment, the risks, expenses, etc, etc., and then offer to take it at a reasonable profit. The State don't want men to work for it for nothing, and could not get honest men to do so if it did.

What the Legislature should do is to keep the Radical clutch off of the Treasury, elect a good, reliable Democratic printer, and give him a fair, reasonable living profit to do the work well and promptly, with sterling security for proper performance.

One thing more. We don't propose to take jobs at rates that will break us because some body else is goose enough to offer to do it.

The Negro Lieutenant Gov. Dunn, of Louisiana, Lately Deceased.

The New Orleans Bee has this to say of the negro who recently died, and was Lieutenant Governor of Louisiana: Mr. Dunn was a representative man among the colored people of the State, and enjoyed their confidence to an extraordinary degree. He was their acknowledged leader. While in office his conduct was marked by good sense, self-possession and a quiet dignity which enabled him to perform his difficult duties as presiding officer of the Senate with a success which could scarcely have been expected from one who had had little or no experience in deliberating assemblies. It is generally admitted that he exercised a restraining influence upon his race, who had been so suddenly elevated from a condition of servitude to a condition of citizenship, and who were encouraged by bad men to make an improper use of their freedom.

The Sun and the Convention.

In a conversation with the manager of the Sun yesterday, he tells us that our article as to its position on the Convention in question did not do the Sun justice. We cheerfully state this. The Sun thought the nomination by the Legislature the best under the short notice, but still does not oppose the Convention. It makes the following suggestions which we heartly indorse:

"It is highly important that the convention shall be full, and that it shall be a fair representation of the Democracy of the State. Several prominent Democrats of the State last evening requested us to urge all the counties to send delegates, so that we may have a full representation in the Convention. And in order to be sure of this, it was suggested that, in all cases where it will be inconvenient to send delegates, the Democrats of the several counties appoint their Democratic representatives in the Legislature to represent them in the Convention; and that counties having no Democratic representatives, and not able to send delegates, appoint the Democratic members of the Legislature from adjoining counties."

Usury.

The Savannah Republican says that the suit of R. T. Wilson against J. T. West and Phillip West was decided in the United States Court on Wednesday. The plaintiffs were a New York firm, and the defendants Sumter county planters. The New Yorkers loaned money on usurious interest to the planters, on cotton security. The planters lost money and plead usury on the note.

The Republican says:

The Judge charged the jury that, if this contract for commissions was made to evade the usury statutes of Georgia, then the policy of the law forbade its execution; but if the agreement was made to pay the legal interest and a commission to the factor, for each month, for his care, deligence, labor and attention expended in the business of defendants, it was proper they should find for the plaintiff. The jury were out but a few moments when they returned a verdict for the plaintiff for the full amount of principal and interest.

The parties were—R. T. Wilson vs. James T. West and Phillip West. R. K. Hines, for plaintiff, and Harden & Levy, for defendant.

The attention of our people is rapidly being turned to this question of our present usury laws. In practice, as we all know, they are totally disregarded. Every bank and every business house understands that money is worth what it will bring. Why then have the usury laws upon the statute book? A law that is not, and that experience shows cannot be enforced, should cease to exist, to say nothing of its pernicious incidental effects upon the trade and general industry of the country, as can be clearly established against the laws forbidding usury.

Upon this subject of usury the LaGrange Reporter has an admirable editorial, winding up with the following:

"Let the usury laws be repealed, and let the money-lender be protected in his right to use his money to the best advantage, as the landholder, or the merchant, is protected in selling his land or goods at the highest prices they can get, and soon money will be in greater circulation, and men needing it can borrow it at reasonable rates. Thus protected, capital will seek investment in our State; and instead of hard-pressed men having to pay from 1½ to 3 per cent. per month for money, they will get it at from 7 to 10 per cent. per annum.

Mingling with gentlemen from various parts of the State within the past two or three weeks, we find there is a strong feeling in favor of repealing the usury laws, and we are of opinion that the Legislature will not only act wisely in doing so, but that it will meet popular commendation from all quarters of Georgia."

The citizens ball given in honor of the inaugural exposition of the Industrial Association of Savannah, came off Thursday evening in the freight ware-house of the Central Railroad, and proved the most brilliant affair of the kind that has been given in Savannah for many years. Templeton's Troupe attracts quite a crowd to witness the unique performances of this talented company. The theater Thursday night was filled to overflowing to enjoy the performances of the Worrell Sisters. How to Protect the State From Bullock's Illegally Endorsed Bonds.

ATLANTA, November 25, 1871.

Editors Constitution—DEAR SIRS: The article in your paper to-day entitled the "Report on Public Works," is deserving of great consideration on the part of your numerous readers, and by the people of Georgia generally. It appears to me that in the article referred to you have suggested what is really the true and only solution to the financial complications in which we are now involved by the reckless administration of Bullock. As a Democrat of the old school, I hate the word "repudiation," or anything that savors of repudiation directly or indirectly. And yet no one is more anxious than myself that the State should be protected against any pecuniary loss that is liable to be incurred by Bullock's violation of law.

How shall that be done? How can the State of Georgia maintain her good name and credit, and at the same time do justice to all? This is not merely "the question of the hour" or of the day, but it is a question of vital importance to this generation and to the next. It is a question, the right consideration and treatment of which, demands a high order of Statesmanship, and should be weighed and discussed without passion or prejudice, in the same manner as important questions of State used to be considered and acted upon, in the good old times by our fathers—by Jackson, Clay, Webster, Calhoun and the great men of our country now dead, but yet living in the page of history, and by their broad, liberal and enlightened statesmanship, still influencing for the better the destinies of our people.

If these men were now living, how would they meet such a question as that which we are now called upon to decide? And here allow me to remark that what sometimes appear to be the most difficult problems, are often of the simplest solution. The statesmen referred to, were always equal to any and every emergency; and the questions which their giant intellects were called upon to consider, were invariably treated with such tact, and with such a spirit of liberality and justice, as to carry conviction to the minds of all. They found simple and easy answers to great questions of universal interest.

And now, Mr. Editor, without any design or intention of flattering you, allow me to say, as an old line, old-fashioned Democrat, pure, straight and unadulterated, proud of Georgia, and of the record which she has made, and only anxious for her happiness and prosperity, that I regard your brief article of to-day, on the "REPORT ON PUBLIC WORKS," as more to the point than anything that has yet been suggested.

Let the Superintendent of Public Works be directed at once, by an Act of the Legislature to measure the roads now being constructed and receiving State aid, and to report to the Legislature the actual length of each of these so-called State aid roads. The endorsement laws show the amount of aid, per mile, each road, by law, is entitled to receive.

These amounts vary, some receiving $12,000 per mile, some $12,500, $13,000, and others $15,000 per mile. But the number which is stamped conspicuously on each bond issued, shows conclusively whether it represents finished or unfinished road. When once the length of the finished road is ascertained for each and all the bonds on every road, receiving State aid, are numbered from one upwards, consecutively, and there is no possibility whatever of a mistake to the detriment of the State when the length of the several roads is definitely known.

The Superintendent of Public Works should also, as you suggest, "personally inspect each road, section by section," and report whether such road "is properly constructed; that its grades, curves, bridges and embankments are all right, and the road properly equipped," and any other facts that are material or required by law.

When Colonel Frobel makes his report to the Legislature it can be ascertained by reference to the indorsement laws precisely what amount of indorsed bonds each road is entitled to, as before stated; and if any bonds are outstanding upon unfinished sections of any road, the Legislature can easily guard the interests of the State by a general law providing for all such cases.

For future protection Colonel Frobel's personal inspection of each road should be required, and his sworn certificate that the law has been complied with in every particular should be first made and filed with the Governor, the Treasurer, the Secretary of State and the Comptroller General before any bonds are indorsed. These certificates should be kept on file and preserved in the several State offices to guard against the possibility of any more bonds being prematurely indorsed.

Again. The President of each road, at the time of receiving endorsed bonds, should sign quadruplicate receipts for the same; one for the Governor, and one for each of the other State officers with whom Colonel Frobel's reports are filed. This fixes the responsibility upon the person receiving the bonds, and furnishes the requisite legal evidence in case bonds are unlawfully obtained. For such offense the Legislature should prescribe heavy penalties by fine and imprisonment both; and the offense should be so characterised in the law that any person violating the same should be unable to find asylum in any of the United States, or in any foreign nation upon the face of the globe.

The annual reports of the several railroad companies to the Superintendent of Public Works should also be made as required by law, and suitable penalties prescribed in case of failure.

As having the interests of Georgia at heart, I am free to confess, that in my judgment, the present Railway policy of our State is correct. Of course it has defects, but these must and can be remedied. Additional restrictions with regard to the issue of bonds, and their registration at the time of issue, are required. Other precautions can be taken which I will not now mention, as my article is longer than I intended; but unless trespassing too much upon your valuable space, I would like to remark, in conclusion, that the people of Georgia must and will have Railroad facilities adequate and ample in all respects to meet her commercial wants and necessities.

Railroads bring wealth and create wealth. They will make our State great and rich and powerful sooner and more certainly than any and all other causes combined.

Our position thirty years hence in the South and in the family of States depends upon our right action to-day with reference to our railway policy.

OUR MACON LETTER.

The Planters Blue—Something Interesting About Senator Norwood—A Strange and Bizarre Murder Case.

MACON, GA., November 21, 1871.

Editors Constitution: The planters and merchants that I have met here are blue, and I fear they have cause, the cotton crop is short, and at present prices, will do little more than pay the cost of producing. I am sorry to contradict one important event in the biography of Hon. Thomas Norwood, Senator elect, as published in the Sun last week, but the truth of history must be vindicated. I met this morning, at the Pye House, one Mr. Pool, who lives in the village of Culloden, and who represents himself as being a Methodist minister and a shoe and boot maker: Mr. Pool says, that when Tom, as he calls him, was a boy, he Mr. P., was in the employment of Mr. Norwood, Sr., who was the owner of a tan yard and shoe shop. Tom completed his course in the village academy, and the old gentleman put Tom under Mr. Pool to learn the art of making and repairing shoes; but that Tom did not learn very fast and that the pair of boots which Tom wore to college, and which must now go down to future generations as part of the history of the country, was not made by Tom, but by himself.

The old gentleman, who is proud of his apprentice, says Tom was a remarkably sharp sighted boy, and he can't understand the recent allusions to Tom's having at some time in his life worn glasses.

Learning that Colonel Acton would arrive at Forsyth at noon, I thought it best to leave, and did so.

I have heard of a most singular homicide, which occurred near Macon on Monday last. It appears that two young men, Lary and Birdsong, had charge of the old Thos. B. Lamar place, just above Macon, and, as Lary tells the story, some bad blood had been excited between them. On Sunday Lary came into the city, fearfully wounded, and went to the house of Mr. Sparks and asked Mr. S. to inform him where he could find the Coroner. Mr. S. referred him to the police for information. Through the kindness of an officer, he found the Coroner, to whom he stated that he had killed Birdsong, and wished him to go out and hold an inquest. Lary hired a horse and buggy and carried the Coroner out. To-day Lary came into town and demanded a hearing, and as there was no one present at the killing but Lary, his statement was all the evidence offered.

He stated that he was sitting at a table writing to Mrs. Lamar, owner of the plantation, and while thus engaged Birdsong came up behind him and struck him over the head with a double-barrel gun, inflicting a serious wound, and knocking him down. The gun broke, leaving only the barrels in B.'s hand. With this he made a second blow, breaking all, or nearly all, the fingers on Lary's left hand. Before Lary became unconscious, he drew from his pocket a derringer pistol. Birdsong immediately snatched this from his hand, and while his victim lay helpless and bleeding on the floor, placed the muzzle of the pistol against his head, just behind the left ear, and fired, but the ball, instead of entering as B. though it did, passed around the bone and came out just in rear of the right ear, opposite where it entered. This shot had the effect to restore Lary to consciousness, and while his foe bent over him, with his ear near his mouth to see if he breathed, Lary remembered he had another pistol in his pocket, and quietly drew it, and before Birdsong discovered his intention placed the muzzle near his forehead, and literally, to use Lary's own langauge, blew the top of his head off, scattering his brains over the floor. For a short time both men lay upon the floor bleeding; the intended victim, however, was able in a short time to raise himself up, and go for the Coroner to hold an inquest upon the body of him who was really the only murderer.

It is useless to state that Lary was promptly acquitted, as the terrible wounds upon his person attested the truth of his statement.

Yours truly, H.

Mr. Jackson's Reason for Supporting Conley's Veto of the Election Bill.

Editors Constitution: Let no man suffer serious mental disquiet by reason of the argument offered by Mr. Jackson, of Fulton, in support of his vote sustaining Conley's veto of the election bill. When a man of Mr. Jackson's well known personal intrepidity so far yields to his apprehension of public danger as to allow it to drive him out of his proper political alignment into the ranks of an odious opposition, timid people are apt to get alarmed and unhappy. If any have done so in this instance, let them banish their fears and be reassured.

The proximate danger and source of unnumbered woes apprehended by Mr. Jackson is the conflict to take place between the Governor to be chosen under the election bill and Mr. Conley, whom Mr. J. calls an usurper; in fact, he resolutely insists upon that characterization; for the usurper has given it out that he means to go on usurping, and intends to hold the place he has usurped until expelled by decision of the court or by force. To settle this contest, it is assumed that the Federal Government, powerful and inimical to the rights and happiness of the people of Georgia, will interfere.

True, it did not interfere in Alabama, in a case precisely parallel in principle, leaving the controversy to the State tribunals, but it is to interfere in Georgia. Georgia is a chosen victim of hostile and capricious power. Well, what then? How far will that interference extend? Will it go beyond the retention of Conley? For is not the sole and whole issue who shall be Governor—Conley or his rival claimant? Can it then go beyond that point without openly proclaiming itself an arbitrary and vengeful despotism—without bearing to Georgia the relation, and holding to her the language, which the wolf held to the lamb? Would not the present General Assembly which now, by its two-thirds majority, hold the "usurper in chains" remain intact in numbers and temper? Could it be interfered with, purged or dissolved, save in the very wantonness of power? What offense would it have committed to have furnished even a pretext for interference?

And so the final result and supreme evil would be just that which exists now, and which, having both the right and desire, it were well worth the effort to be rid of. If, by the high handed exercise of Federal power, we are denied the enjoyment of rightful privilege, the present situation will be unaltered.

This, upon Mr. Jackson's theory of certain interference, touching the happening of that untoward event, we differ from him, and regret that anybody should apprehend it, since to expect it is to invite it. If it should come, it can go no further than we have shown. To fear that it will go beyond that and work general overthrow is not the fear of reasonable men. If it comes we must submit, as we have done before, and bow to the usurper's rule. But, young men of Georgia,

"You and I have heard our fathers say
There was a Brutus once that would have brooked
The eternal devil to keep his state in Rome
As easily as a king."

Judge Warner.

Editors Constitution: I have seen the claims of Judge Warner mentioned in your valuable paper, in connection with the office of Governor. While I am the friend of Judge Warner for any position to which he might aspire, as I believe him honest and faithful, I am, nevertheless, opposed to making him Governor, for the reason that the State want his services in a higher sphere—one to which public opinion assigns him by common consent. I mean that of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the State. I hope it will not be long until that appointment is confered upon him. CITIZEN.

WHAT BULLOCK SAYS OF HIMSELF AND CONFEDERATES.—Bullock is now in Washington, and the Patriot of Monday says of him: Governor Bullock, defending himself from the outcry against him, denies that he has profited to any material extent by the peculations in which he took a hand, "I had to wink at the stealing around me," he said, "and pretend to take my share. If I hadn't done so, the knavish carpet-baggers and scalawags, with whom I was forced to associate, would have stolen me bodily?"

FINE STRAWBERRIES.—We are indebted to Mrs. G. W. D. Cook for fine specimens of ripe strawberries from her garden. They are large and luscious.

STONE MOUNTAIN ACADEMY.—We learn that the trustees of Stone Mountain Academy have secured the services of L. A. Sermur as principal for next year, and of Mrs. Tumlinson as assistant.

FULTON SUPERIOR COURT.—The case of the State vs. T. D. Lynes, Notary Public, malpractice in office, was concluded yesterday. The jury rendered a verdict of "guilty." It is probable that the defendant will be sentenced on Monday.

DISMISSED.—The case of the United States vs. several citizens of Dade county, charged with being Ku-Klux, was dismissed yesterday by Commissioner W. B. Smith. The prosecutor and witnesses left the city Friday night. So ends the chapter.

COMMITTED.—Justice Johnson, yesterday, committed James Jenkins (colored), eleven years of age, for shooting and killing a companion last Thursday, to await a trial before Fulton Superior Court.

LITERARY AND LIQUORARY.—The Clayton Times announces the arrival at Jonesboro' of William H. Moore, local editor of the Atlanta Sun, "connected with the liquor house of R. M. Rose & Co., Atlanta."

NEWNAN.—The Peoples' Defender claims that Newnan has "the prettiest married lady in the State." The P. G. in G. left Atlanta yesterday morning for her home in Newnan. Next, Brother Taylor will claim the finest babies and the fattest possums for Newnan.

THE AIR-LINE RAILROAD.—Notwithstanding the monetary stringency, we hope that the Air Line Railroad will push the matter of running its track beyond Gainesville as soon as possible. The peoplesare desirous of making "close connections" with Atlanta, and it will pay the road handsomely.

ERRONEOUS.—Some of our cotemporaries announced that Major W. E. Simmons, one of the energetic Representatives from Gwinnett, voted to sustain Acting Governor Conley's veto of the Election Bill. On the contrary, Major Simmons voted for the passage of the bill over the veto.

PAYNE'S CHURCH SABBATH SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY.—The annual celebration of Payne's Church Sunday School will be held at Payne's Church at 2½ P. M. to-day. Addresses will be made by Dr. W. P. Harrison, Rev. A. Wright, C. A. Evans, J. M. Dickey, G. H. Pattillo, Hon. Garnett McMillan and others. The public are specially invited.

A NO. 1 FAIR.—A colored female in this city feeling that her exchequer needed replenishing, got up a fair which might be justly termed a No. one fair. Her residence contained two rooms 8x10. In one she opened her fair for the benefit of the poor, (herself) and at the close of the first day, found that her receipts footed up one dollar and fifty cents. She has a poor opinion now of fairs.

BUSINESS.—There will be classes formed at the Eastman College on Monday evening for instruction in the science of accounts, and also for imparting a rapid, legible hand writing. There are many young men who are employed during the day that should avail themselves of the advantage offered by Prof. Eastman. His course of training is practical in every feature, while the style of penmanship taught at his Institution is unsurpassed.

JOHN PEEL.—The Confectionery and Restaurant of our clever friend, John Peel, continues to grow in favor with the public. Mr. Peel is a clever gentleman, and has always the best in the market. His stock of confectioneries, fruits, etc., is large and of the best quality, and in his restaurant you can get anything nice from venison to red snappers, that you may call for. Call and see John Peel.

PECK, DE SAULLES & CO.—The above firm will offer during the week, at very low prices, colored and black silk dress goods, white and gray blankets, furs, white and red flannel, shawls, domestics, laces embroideries, quilts, and everything in their line, at wholesale and retail. The attention of our lady readers is specially directed to the advertisement of the above popular house.

A COMPREHENSIVE STATEMENT.—On the second page will be found a tabular statement of the financial condition and operations of the Western and Atlantic Railroad under Blodgett's administration, and on the first page the report of the citizens' committee in charge of the books and papers of the State Road. The report and exhibits were returned to the House of Representatives yesterday morning. It is explicit and reflects credit on the committee. It was so full of interest to the public that we give it to our readers in full.

LECTURE.—Quite a large and highly intelligent audience of ladies and gentlemen assembled at the Hall of the House of Representatives last evening, to hear the address of the Hon. Henry M. Law, of Savannah, upon the subject of Temperance. The reputation of the speaker as an orator had preceeded him, and public expectation of an intellectual treat ran high. Public anticipation was more than realized. The address was chaste, replete with beautiful imagery, pathos and eloquence. Mr. Law is quite handsome, has a highly cultivated mind, and is a graceful eloquent orator.

DEGIVE'S.—Last night the engagement of Miss Effie Johns, at this place of amusement, closed. Miss Effie has danced during the week with much grace and artistic skill, sung delightfully, and given undoubted evidence of talent as an artist. Each night's performance has rendered her more and more a favorite with our theater habitues, in fact, her capabilities as an actress are just beginning to be understood in our city. Her impersonations are invariably, throughout the play, attractive, natural and successful. Miss Johns is richly endowed with that emotional talent which is a prerequisite to the excellent rendition of many of the characters assumed by her. The audiences at DeGive's have been much pleased with her vivacity, unstudied grace, and her artlessness. She is a delightful little actress, and richly deserves the applause so lavishly bestowed upon her during her engagement.

Boucicault's Drama, the Colleen Bawn, was selected for last night. The play was well mounted, and, as an entirety, was a success. As Eiley O'Connor (the Colleen Bawn) Miss Effie Johns was very happy, attractive, effective and satisfactory. Such is the talent of the other members of the company that not a flaw exists in the entire cast.

GREAT AUCTION SALE.—In another column will be found the advertisement of a large auction sale of diamonds, jewelry, watches, cutlery, etc., commencing next Tuesday evening, at the Live Auction Mart, under DeGive's of T. C. Mayson. This sale, we learn, has no connection with any previous or present sale of such goods. The goods are warranted to be as represented, as A No 1, and are from one of the best establishments on Broadway, New York. These goods will be open for the inspection of the public on next Mond y and Tuesday, and the ladies are specially invited to call and examine them. The sale will commence on Tuesday night and continue until all the goods are disposed of. It is the largest sale of goods of this kind ever offered here.

THE LINGARD TROUPE will begin a short engagement at DeGives, on Monday night. The press through the country give them very flattering notices; and wherever they have performed, by their delineations, have gained the lauds of the audience.

The sketches of William Horace Lingard are always presented with good effect, and are rapturously applauded. In these personations he is inimitable, and the rapidity with which he changes is remarkable. As a protean artist, he ranks high. Miss Alice Dunning (Lingard) has a queenly beauty, a good figure, and is an artiste of much merit. The company is composed of excellent material, and their repertoire is light, pleasing and agreeable.

JONES AND BEATIES' STOCK YARD.—We paid a visit yesterday to the Live Stock Yard of Jones and Beatie, on the Georgia Railroad. It is a fine institution. Every convenience for the comfort of the stock is provided. They have water-works of their own, running into every pen, and throughout the yard.

Yesterday they received four car loads of horses and mules, three of cattle, and fourteen of hogs. We noticed in the pens twenty-two car loads of hogs and five of cattle.

Mules are retailing at about $200. Medium mules command from $125 to $150.

Hogs bring from 5 to 5½ cents on foot.

Common beef cattle sell at 2½ cents and good Tennessee four cents per pound.

The stock yard is daily growing in favor.

IS IT ANOTHER NEW DEPARTURE?—Editors Constitution: The New Era denounces the proposed paper entitled the Constitutional Monarchist as a Bourbon trick. This is evidently done because it does not profess exactly the favorite doctrine of the Era—that of military interference in civil affairs in open violation of the organic law of the land.

Now, in the absence of the parties who propose to publish this journal, I take the liberty of saying that it will, as the prospectus declares, "have no connection or affinity with either of the existing parties;" that it will no more support such rash and extreme measures of the Democratic party as the election bill, lately passed by the Legislature of this State, than the suppression of habeas corpus and the institution of courts-martial to try civil cases by a military despot. The common law is the parent of liberty.

Trial by jury, habeas corpus, freedom of speech and of the press, distinct separation of the Executive, Legislative, and Judiciary branches of the government, and all of its offspring; and these are the landmarks by which the managers of this journal will be guided.

They love and venerate the system, and for this reason will support it, so long as the votaries of liberty and justice are permitted to espouse such views, or they to publish them.

W. H. RIVERS,

Air-Line House, November 24, 1871.

A COMPLAINT.—My father says that there is an ordinance in existence which makes it a fine to crowd up the sidewalks with boxes, barrels, bales, etc. There are certain streets in the city which I am compelled to go through on my way to school, the sidewalks of which are at times so crowded with bales of hay, piles of greasy bacon, great frightful legs of beef and sticky molasses barrels, that I can hardly pass. Will you please republish some verses which I find in a Kentucky paper, with alterations and changes made by me, so that they may suit the case of a SCHOOL GIRL.

I have stood it as long as I can,
I have fussed till I found it no use;
And at last have adopted this plan
Of declaring it's a great abuse.

Those abominable goods on pavements
Are dreadfully horrid, you know;
And this is the opinion of school girls,
Who past them have to go.

Ugly meat is piled up on the pavement,
And over it you must climb,
Dropping your school books in molasses and grease,
And having a dreadful time.

You must hug up sticky sugar barrels,
To let other people get past,
Have your nice clean dress spoiled by fish,
Yet look amiable to the last.

If I live for fifty years,
I hope to see the day,
When the Mayor will make this thing all right,
And have these things all cleaned away.

Then the ladies will be joyful,
Of that Mayor they will "dote;"
And they will have him re-elected, too,
For by that time they can vote.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The Board of Education seem to be taking hold of the work of Public Education in earnest, and we believe we shall soon see a system of Public schools in successful operation. They have wisely determined to at once establish a High school, and thus from the beginning provide for scholars of all grades.

We do not doubt that the Board will place competent teachers in these schools, appointing those best qualified without partiality, fear, or favor.

At a recent meeting of the Board, Mr. Mallon, Superintendent, was unanimously elected Secretary of the Board. We observe that the City Council, at their meeting Friday evening, re-elected Messrs. Blanchard and Hemphill, whose term has just expired, and appointed Messrs. Lowry and Scruggs to the vacancies made by the death of Dr. O'Keefe and the resignation of Dr Stout.

The Board now consists of Hon. J. E. Brown, President, J. P. Logan, M. D., Vice President, E. E. Rawson, L. E. Bleckley, John H. Flynn, L. P. Grant, D. Mayer, H. T. Phillips, W. L. Scruggs, W. A. Hemphill, M. C. Blanchard, R. J. Lowry, Hon. D. F. Hammond, Mayor ex-officio, and B. Mallon, Superintendent.

The building on Ivy street is nearly completed, and the one on Crew street is well on its way. There was considerable delay in commencing work on the Walker street house, but they will probably all be finished by the first of January.

The Superintendent proposes to hold a Normal Institute during the first week in January, just before the opening of the schools. This will be composed of all the teachers appointed to the Public schools, together with any other teachers who may choose to join them. The object of this Institute will be to discuss the methods and principles of teaching with practical illustrations, and especially to prepare the teachers for the new work upon which they are about to enter. Lectures will be delivered by teachers and distinguished friends of education in our city, and by educators from abroad.

The following resolutions, in reference to the death of Dr. O'Keefe, were passed by the Board of Education at its last meeting.

The committee of three, who were appointed to draft suitable resolutions in regard to the death of Dr. D. C. O'Keefe, offer the following:

Whereas, Death has taken from us one of the most active and energetic members of this Board, Dr. D. C. O'Keefe, depriving us of his influence and his counsel, and inflicting upon this Board, as well as the city, a loss that may be truly designated as irreparable; and,

Whereas, The medical profession has lost one who reflected honor on his calling by his erudition and experience; education a persistent, untiring and strenuous advocate; society at large a cultivated gentleman; and the State, one of her best and truest citizens; "neither harsh nor timid;" one who neither sought nor avoided honors; who was a true man in all the relations of life; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this Board, in giving expression to their deep sorrow at the loss of one of their number who was the first to advocate the pulic school system in Atlanta, tender their sincere condolence to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That a page on the minutes of this Board be dedicated to his memory, and a copy of these resolutions be furnished his family.

CHEROKEE PILLS NO. 2.

For the Removal of Obstructions and the Insurance of Regularity in the Recurrence of Monthly Periods.

THESE PILLS are an unfailing Female Regulator, intended for special cases; those obstinate ones where milder and cheaper medicines fail.

They are composed of the most active and powerful principles of plants, roots and berries, so highly concentrated that each pill contains more medical strength than a whole box or bottle of ordinary dollar medicine in the market. Although powerful, yet so mild and pleasant in their operation, that the most feeble can take them with perfect safety.

☞ They may be safely used at any age, and at any period, except during the First Three Months, during which the unfailing nature of their effects would infallibly prevent pregnancy.

☞ All letters seeking information or advice will be promptly, freely and discreetly answered.

☞ Each box contains about 100 pills, and wrapped in white paper printed in deep red letters, with full and explicit directions enclosed.

☞ Sent by mail, free of postage, on receipt of price, $5, per box.

☞ The Cherokee Pills No. 2 are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of this; those which they can purchase at a cheap price and make more money. As you value your health do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these $5 pills, and take no other. If the Druggist will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter and we will send them to you by mail, free of postage, securely sealed from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

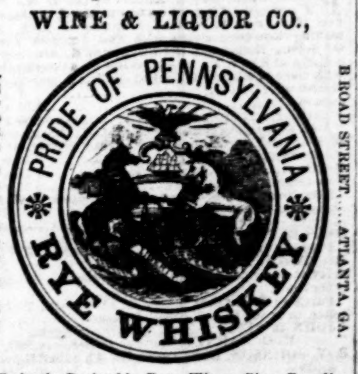

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms, and write post office, county, State and name of writer, and enclose postage stamp for reply.

☞ We desire to send our thirty-two page pamphlet, entitled "MAN AND WOMAN AS INVALIDS," to every reader of this paper. Address as follows:

We wish to send our pamphlet, entitled "Man and Woman as Invalids," to every reader of this paper, and will mail, free, a dozen or more copies to any person who will hand them to their friends. Address St. Louis Medical Association, No. 117 Sixth Street, St. Louis, Missouri. sep13-d&w1y

NOTICE

TO RUPTURED PERSONS OF ATLANTA.

RADICAL CURE OF

ABDOMINAL HERNIA OR RUPTURE,

Without Inconvenience to the Patient, or Restriction in Exercise or Diet.

DR. J. L. ROWE, Artistic Surgeon, having devoted his time exclusively to the study and treatment of Abdominal Hernia, in its various forms and stages, respectfully announces to the public that he has opened an office, Room No. 2, Capitol Building, Atlanta Georgia, where, during business hours, each day, he can be consulted.

During an experience of over twenty years, Dr. R. has treated several thousand ruptured patients of both sexes and of all ages, a great number of whom were restored to health, vigor and a sound body.

This has been effected by assiduous study and the use of his inventions, in conjunction with his popular remedies, being an external application, promoting a speedy and permanent cure, without the sufferings and injuries resulting from the rigid and insupportable pressure of a Truss.

So reliable is this treatment that the patient, in most instances from the first application, will cease to be annoyed by a return of the rupture, and will be enabled to take the most active exercise on foot or on horseback, with perfect security against the dangers of strangulated Hernia.

DR. ROWE'S ABDOMINAL SUPPORTER.

Relief and cure for Female, Uterine or Abdominal weaknesses, Corpulency or general Debility. Very light and comfortable.

The New York Methodist, of 9th May, 1866, highly recommends Dr. Rowe's successful treatment of Ruptures and Deformities. The editor has extensive acquaintance with his patients, and positive knowledge of very wonderful cures. He therefore invites the earnest attention of the afflicted and the closest scrutiny of the profession.

No charge for examination under any circumstances whatever. I invite the ruptured, and all persons interested, to call and examine for themselves.

Positive certificates of many radical cures can be shown—among others, several clergymen.

Don't forget the address. DR. J. L. ROWE,

THERE IS NO DEATH.

BY SIR E. BULWER LYTTON.

There is no death! The stars go down
To rise upon some fairer shore;
And bright in Heaven's jeweled crown
They shine for ever more.

There is no death! The dust we tread
Shall change beneath the summer shower
To golden grain or mellow fruit,
Or rainbow tinted flowers.

The granite rocks disorganize
To feed the hungry moss they bear;
The forest leaves drink daily life
From out the viewless air.

There is no death! The leaves may fall,
The flowers may fade and pass away;
They only wait through wintry hours,
The coming of the May.

There is no death! All angel form
Walks o'er the earth with silent tread;
He bears our best loved things away,
And then we call them "dead."

He leaves our hearts all desolate,
He plucks our fairest, sweetest flowers;
Transplanted into bliss, they now
Adorn immortal bowers.

The bird-like voice, whose joyous tones
Made glad these scenes of sin and strife,
Sings now an everlasting song
Amid the tree of life.

And where he sees a smile too bright,
Or heart too pure for taint and vice,
He bears it to that world of light,
To dwell in Paradise.

Born unto that undying life,
They leave us but to come again;
With joy we welcome them—the same,
Except in sin and pain.

And ever near us, though unseen,
The dear immortal spirits tread;
For all the boundless Universe
Is life—there are no dead.

GONE BEFORE.

There's a beautiful face in the silent air,
Which follows me ever and near,
With smiling eyes and amber hair,
With voiceless lips, yet with breath of prayer,
That I feel but cannot hear.

The dimpled hand and ringlet of gold
Lie low in a marble sleep;
I stretch my hand for a clasp of old,
But the empty air is strangely cold,
And my vigil alone I keep.

There's a sinless brow with a radiant crown,
And a cross laid down in the dust;
There's a smile where never a shade comes now,
And tears no more from those dear eyes flow,
So sweet in their innocent trust.

Ah, well! and summer is come again,
Singing her same old songs;
But, oh! it sounds like a sob of pain,
As it floats in the sunshine and rain,
O'er the hearts of the world's great throng.

There's a beautiful region above the skies,
And I long to reach its shore,
For I know I shall find my treasure there,
The laughing eyes and amber hair
Of the loved one gone before.

GOD BLESS YOU.—Who has not felt the power of these words? Who does not treasure up those hallowed moments of the irrevocable past, when from the lips of some loved one fell upon your ears a "God bless you" that found an echo in the truest and purest feelings of the heart? A God bless you, that will go with us through life, and bring peace and comfort when all things else are shrouded in gloom, and no joys seems awaiting the heart so long acquainted with sorrow. Dying lips in feeble accents have murmured "God bless you." It greets the ear of infancy and reclaims the wayward youth. It has been heard at the bridal altar and said at the tomb. Loved voices breathed it in our ears when we parted, and the sound still lingers to cheer our saddened hearts. Oh! may we hear it through life, and when we stand on the brink of those waters which flow between time and eternity, may the last words that break upon our listening ears be the God bless you which comes from the lips of loved ones left behind.

"SOMETIMES."—It is the sweet, sweet song warbled to and fro among the tempest boughs of the heart, and filling the whole air with such joy and gladness as the song of birds do when the summer morning comes out of darkness, and day is born on the mountains. We have all our possessions in the future which we call "sometimes."

Beautiful flowers and singing birds are there, only your hands seldom grasp the one, or our ears hear the other. But, oh, readers, be of good cheer, for all the good there is in a golden "sometimes;" when the hills and valleys are all passed; when the wear of fever, the disappointment and sorrows of life are over, then there is a place and the rest of God.

Oh, homestead, over whose roof falls no shadows or eved clouds; and over whose threshold the voice of sorrow is never heard; built upon eternal hills, and standing with thy spires and pinnacles of celestial beauty on high, those who love God, shall rest under thy shadows, where there is no more sorsow nor pain, nor the sound of weeping—"sometimes."—Prentice.

A BEAUTIFUL THOUGHT.—When the summer of youth is slowly wasting away in the nightfall of age, and the past becomes deeper and deeper, and life wears to its close, it is pleasant to look through the vista of time upon the sorrows and felicities of our earlier years. If we have a home to shelter, and hearts to rejoice with us, and friends have been gathered together around our firesides, the rough places warfaring will have been worn and smoothed away, in the twilight of life, while many dark spots we have passed through will grow brighter and more beautiful. Happy indeed are those whose intercourse with the world has not changed the tone of their holier feelings, or broken those musical chords of the heart, whose vibrations are so melodious, so tender and so touching in the evening of life.

WHAT MAKES THE MAN?—What is it that makes a man? Can you tell? We can tell you what does not. Good clothes do not; learning does not. You must have something else to make a man of. We have seen a good description of man, which reads thus:

A beautiful soul, and loving mind,
Full of affection for its kind;
A helper of the human race,
A soul of beauty and of grace;
That truly speaks of God within,
And never make a league with sin.

This is the kind of a man worth something in the world. We want a great many more such men than we have now. Will you not strive to be such a man?

☞ Constantine the Great, looking at some statues of some noted persons who were represented standing, remarked: "I will have mine taken kneeling, for that is how I have risen to eminence. It is not the arithmetic of our prayers, how many they be; nor the rhetoric of our prayers, how eloquent they be; nor the geometry of our prayers, how long they be; nor the music of our prayers, how sweet our voice may be; nor the logic of our prayers, how argumentative they may be; nor the method of our prayers, how orderly they may be; nor even the 'divinity' of our prayers, how good the doctrine may be—which God cares for. . . . Fervency of spirit is that which availeth much."

☞ If God gave you genius; if God gave you imagination; if God gave you tender sensibility; if God gave you love for music, and love for literature, he did not give you these things as so many feathers put into the nest of selfishness, to be pressed by your breast alone. God gave you these royal lights that you might use them, first for yourselves and then also for others. You are joined to your kind; and if you are like your Father in heaven, who "maketh His sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sendeth rain on the just and the unjust;" if you have all excellencies, while they are building you up in refinement and virtue, they will at the same time lead you to pity those who are in transgression.—Our Home Journal.

☞ There is a beauty of daily living which is not in any manner dependent upon outward surroundings, which receives no added luster from costly equipments, which may shine with most attractive grace amid the humblest environments. The beauty that is born of a benevolent heart filled with kindly thoughts of all God's creatures, of a calm and self-poised spirit of quiet communings with things which are unseen and eternal, is a beauty which all who strive for it may possess.

LIFE WITHOUT TRIALS.—Would you wish to live without trials? Then you would wish to die half a man. Without trial you cannot guess at your own strength. Men do not learn to swim on a table; they must go into the deep water, and buffet the surges. If you wish to understand their true character—if you would know their whole strength—or what you are capable, throw them overboard. Over with them, and if they are worth saving they will swim ashore of themselves.

☞ The latest method of suicide is to fill one's mouth with gunpowder and then chew caps.

READ THIS.—BERLIN, (WIS.) January 14th, 1871.—Dr. V. Clarence Price—DEAR SIR: I learn with pleasure that you contemplate offering your Blood Enricher as a specific outside of your practice. I have for some time thought you ought to do so, in justice to a suffering and oft times humbugged public, who cannot fail to appreciate as soon as they come to know its merits. I have taken this remedy myself, as have several members of my family, and with the best results in every case, restoring wasted energies, and regulating and building up the system when other remedies had failed to produce the desired results. You are at liberty to refer to me as endorsing your claims for this remedy.
Very truly, yours. T. L. TERRY,
Editor Courant, Berlin, Wis.

"TRUTH UNVAILING FALSEHOOD."—In all theories, speculations, and practical facts which occupy the attention and investigations of the mental faculties, there is always a true side and a false one. It matters not whether we treat of Philosophy, Religion, Politics, or the Arts and Sciences—the laws of Mechanism, Government, or Medicine—there is still a false as well as true principle with which to grapple. Quacks—and their name is legion—come forward with their glittering generalities and plausible theories with which to lead credulous persons into irretrievable error.

"But Truth, crushed to earth, will rise again—
The eternal years of God are hers;
While Error, wounded, writhes in pain,
And dies amid her worshipers."

So has it ever been with those miserable imitators of Plantation Bitters. They and their vile life-destroying, poisonous compounds, have found that oblivion which a discriminating public will always finally award them, while Plantation Bitters still comforts and restores health to its millions upon millions of consumers, which are annually increasing.
nov21—deod1w&w1t

ARREST DECAY.—When a plant or a tree begins to decay it must needs die. It cannot be revitalized. But it is not so with human beings. A human ruin can be repaired, strengthened, restored, though a brown leaf or a withered blade of grass can never be made green again. In the autumn of life, or even in its winter, when nature seems to be giving way under the pressure of years, it is still possible to retard the progress of decay, and to lend to age more than its wonted vigor. As a means of promoting this object, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is unquestionably the most potent of all restoratives. It will not make the old young, but it will prevent, lessen, or sooth the infirmities which are the usual accompaniments of the decline of life. For debility and a lack of nervous power, from whatever cause arising, it is the medicine that of all others before the world, best deserves the name of a specific. In purity, in invigorating properties, in its adaptation to weak stomachs and feeble organizations, it has no competitor among the tonics of the pharmacopœia, nor among proprietory remedies. Besides its strengthening principle, it possesses alterative and regulating properties of the highest order, and as an anti-bilious medicine is far preferable to any of the preparations containing mercury. Time has shown that for physical decay, nervous debility, dyspepsia, bilious disorders, and intermittent fever, Hostetter's Bitters is a remedy without a rival. This is the season of the fall of the leaf; let it remind the old, the feeble, the sickly, to invigorate and regulate their systems with this great vegetable tonic and alterative.

No orders except by mail will be received after December 1st, and no orders by mail will be filled after December 10th. The New York office will close December 10th; other agencies December 5th. Every ticket unsold December 14th will be cancelled by its number. The drawing will take place in public December 16, 1871, commencing at 7 A. M., and continue until the 721 gifts are awarded. Payment of awards will commence December 19th, at 9 o'clock A. M. Circulars of awards will be found at every agency as soon as they can be issued correctly, and will also be sent to all ticket buyers as soon as possible.
